PICCOLOMINI. The New York Evening Post, in a notice of a performance of the "Bohemian Girl" at the Academy of Music, says: The second act was redeemed by the appearance of Piccolomini, who sang very sweetly, "I dreamed that I dwelt," though the ong sounded strangely in its Italian dress, "In una reggia splendida." In answer to the calls for an encore, the lady gave the song in English, which of course, created a sensa tion; the version and effect thereof has thus been phonographically reported by a journal in another city, and the description will serve just as well for this latitude and for the lady's performance last night: Enter Madame Piccolomini, R. E., at a sort of hop-and-skip step. (Sensation and applause.) Courtesies to audience, and looks over left shoul-

1. LONDON QUARTERLY, (Conservative.)
2. EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig.)
3. NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church.) 4. Westminister Review, (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.) These Periodicals ably represent the three great olitical parties of Great Britain-Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensible to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other The receipt of Adeance Sheets from the British publishers, gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they now can be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original edi-

INDEN WHISKEY .- This WHISKEY is I made in the old fashioned copper still, by double distillation, just beyond the summit of the Blue Ridge, in Warren county, Va., near the line of Pau-quier, where the softness and purity of the mounquier, where the sormess and purity of the moun-tain spring water, and the quality of the rye, con-stitute important elements in making the Whiskey for which this locality has been long celebrated. It is perfectly pure, beyond all doubt, being made exclusively of rye, hops, and barley-malt, with the utmost care. The quantity made is limited, and bought principally for private use, by gentlemen connoissieurs in the surrounding counties, who are critically nice in laying by a stock for improvement.
